

NEXT WEEK'S POST:

America's Secret Agents:
The Mysterious Doings of CIA

HANS KNOPP

Beginning an exclusive report on America's "silent service," the supersecret Central Intelligence Agency. A first-time revelation of its methods, and its world-wide reach, including behind the Iron Curtain.

at last:

A REPORT ON THE CIA!

TWELVE months ago, on assignment from THE SATURDAY EVENING POST, two Washington correspondents set out to get the complete inside story of the Central Intelligence Agency—the supersecret CIA that is our first line of defense in today's underground war with Russia.

The result of their painstaking work is a report which, for the first time, answers some questions that the American people have long been asking, and asking in vain:

Just what is the CIA up to?

Is it true that Communists have worked into its ranks?

How does the CIA get its operatives, male and female?

Where does it get its money—and how much?

What has it really accomplished, especially in Guatemala, in Iran, behind the Iron Curtain?

What do the Russians think about it—and do about it?

Why has there always been such a hush-hush air about the CIA, its methods and its motives?

You will find the answers to these questions in the exclusive report, by Richard and Gladys Harkness, which begins . . .
